

On the 70th year Anniversary of the start of the Korean War, the Veterans Council of St. Johns County produced a documentary, "Korea, The Forgotten War: Remembered" to Honor Korean War veterans on this unusual Veterans Day 2020.

The documentary was broadcast on WJCT TV, the PBS affiliate in Jacksonville, FL on November 11th, Veterans Day and then rebroadcast on Sunday November 15th.

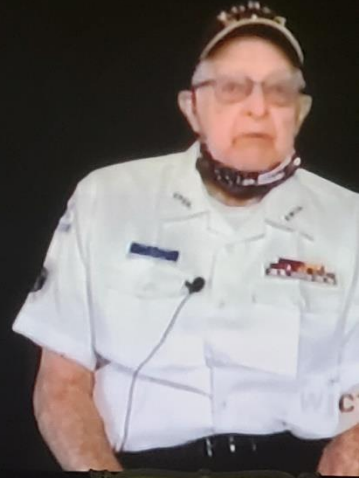

The Council thanks Dr. Henry Moreland, President of the Korean War Veterans Association, chapter 200, Jacksonville for his help in this project.

Here are some of the Heroes in the video who remembered their Korean War experiences.

I THINK I WAS AVERAGE ABOUT TWO HOURS' SLEEP A NIGHT.
FOR THOSE WHO

The Forgotten War

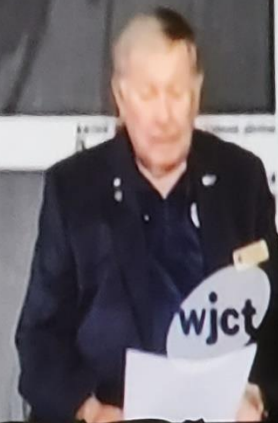

Panasonic

'Forgotten'

s who served in Korea, en War," will be among onored Saturday

BY GUY LORING
At the end of World War II, American servicemen were lobby against Communist forces in Korea in 1950.
By declared war and often called "The Forgotten War."
on 14,000 American boys. To mark the 50th anniversary George West, spokesman of the committee, also said that the warrior behavior during the community's annual July 14th at a community hall. Several of those veterans returned ed to the Marine Corps in 1950 and was 14 when he returned to get "because there was a war on and I was a parallel, the dividing line between Mind and energy house. The area he said was "the Park Loop that, where it went back and forth between the Chinese troops and us."
In a letter home to his parents, Smith wrote: "This war is back and I'm glad to hear."
Smith said he won't forget long — from May 1 to Sept.

Panasonic

>>MR. FOY: MY NAME IS DONALD F. FOY.

Donald F. Foy
Sgt Medical Technician
Air Force

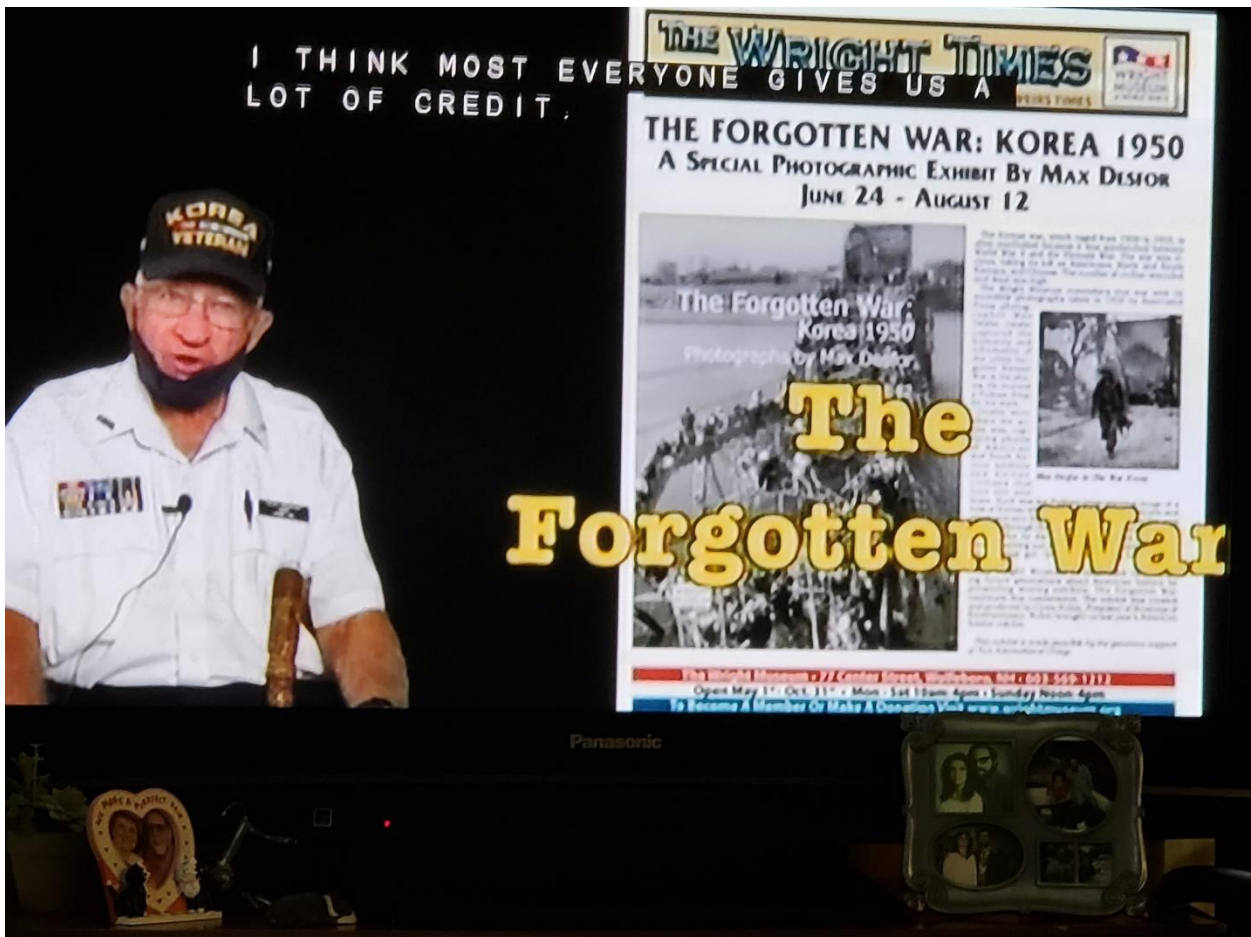

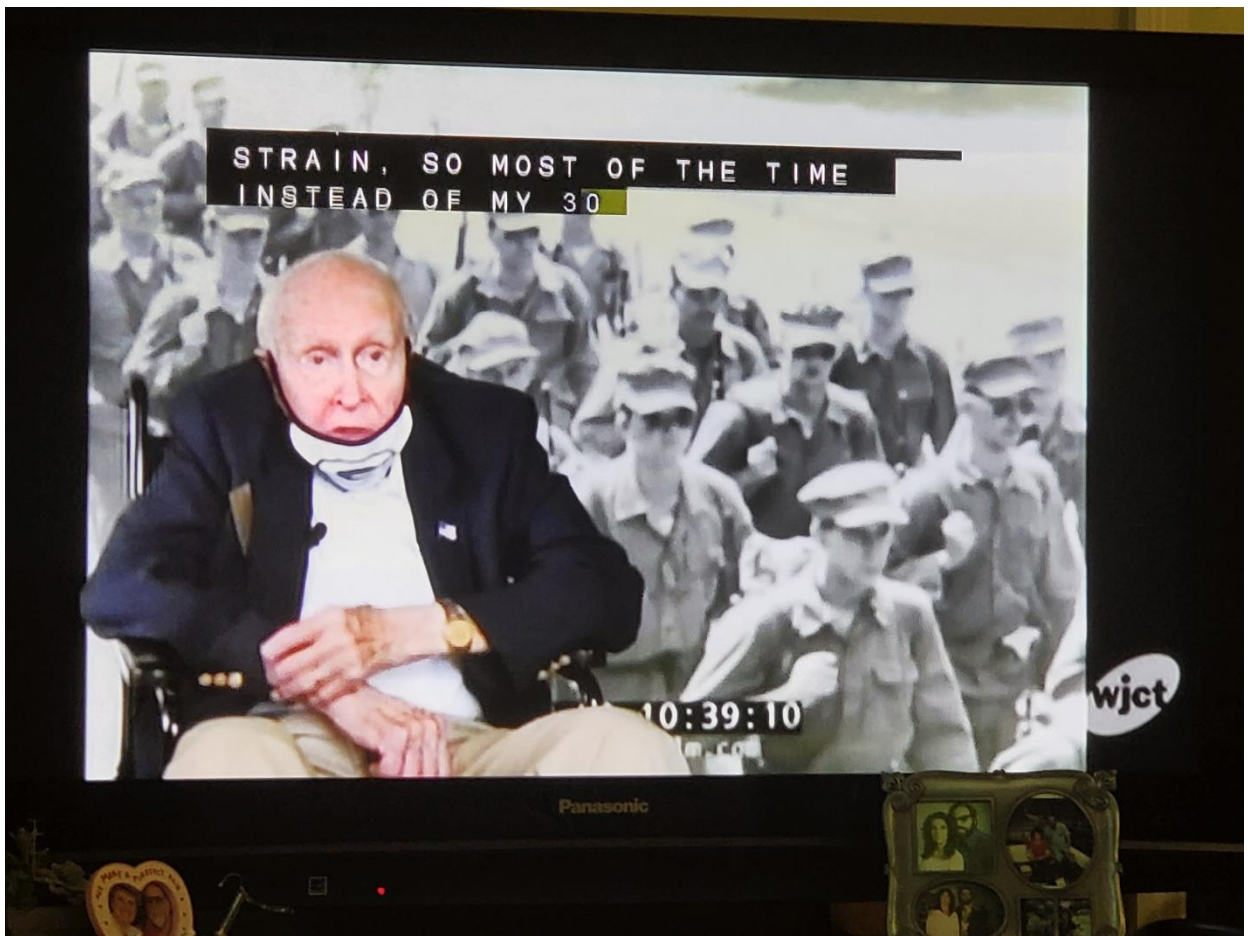

Panasonic

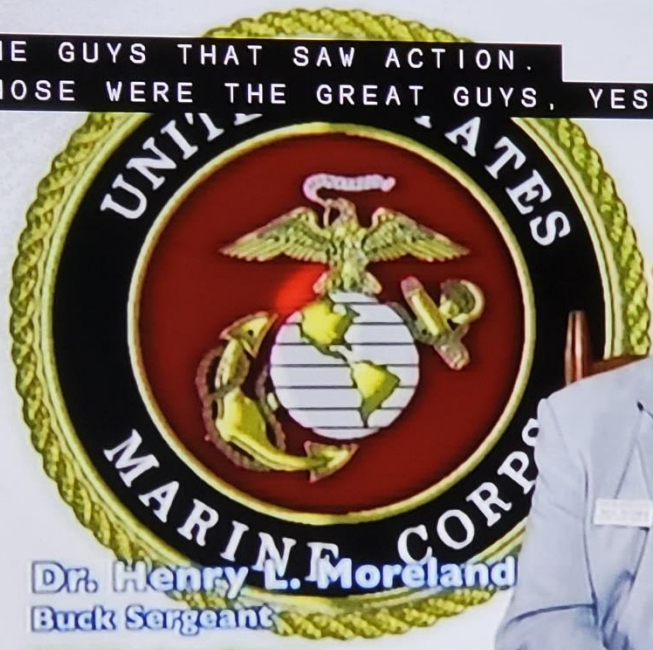

Panasonic

THE GUYS THAT SAW ACTION.
THOSE WERE THE GREAT GUYS, YES,

Dr. Henry L. Moreland
Buck Sergeant
US Marine Corps

Panasonic

