BIOGRAPHY

Roy Havekost, Webmaster

Born and raised in New Jersey. Roy is a veteran of the U.S. Navy, having served during the Vietnam Era in Beach Jumper Unit 2. After his military service he went on to serve and complete a 26+ year career in law enforcement in northern New Jersey, retiring as Detective Captain. During his career as a police officer, Roy developed an interest in computers and their operating systems as well as their overall capabilities. In his off time, he attended a local community college, taking various computer courses. In the early 90's, Roy formed Val-Tech Data Consultants, which primarily dealt with data storage and information retrieval as well as scheduling programs geared particularly for police agencies. With the gaining popularity of the internet, a subsidiary company was formed in 1996, PageAuthors Web Design would become his primary focus. The company was formed to help new small business owners in attaining an internet presence for their company.

Roy moved to northeast Florida in 2004 and brought with him his company PageAuthors Web Design. Since his move to Florida, he has been very active in the American Legion. He is a Past Commander of Post 233 in Ponte Vedra- Palm Valley and is currently the American Legion Department of Florida Social Media Chairman. He is now the webmaster for the Veterans Council website and Facebook group.
